

HOW LOVELY ARE THY DWELLINGS

Words by John Milton

Music by Alan Wilson

1

Sopran/Alt

8

How love-ly are thy dwel-lings fair! O Lord of hosts, how dear The plea-sant ta-ber-na-cles are Where thou dost dwell so near.

17

Vers 2

Sopran

Alt

Tenor

Bass

My soul doth long and al-most die Thy 22

courts, O Lord, to see, My heart and 27

flesh a-loud do cry, O li-ving God for thee.

34 Vers 3

Alt
Ah - - - - -

Tenor
8 Hap - py who in thy house re - side, where thee they

Bass
Ah - - - - -

39

Alt
Ah - - - - -

Tenor
8 e - ver praise Hap - py whose strength in

Bass
Ah - - - - -

44

Alt
thee doth bide, and in their hearts thy ways.

Tenor
8

Bass

49 Vers 4

Alt
They jour - ney on from strength to strength, with

Tenor
- They jour - ney on from strength to strength, with

Bass
8 They jour - ney on from strength to strength, with

They jour - ney on from strength to strength, with

54

joy and glad - some cheer, Till all be - fore our

joy and glad - some cheer, Till all be - fore our

8 joy and glad - some cheer, Till all be - fore our

joy and glad - some cheer, Till all be - fore our 60

God at length in Si - on do ap - pear.

God at length in Si - on do ap - pear.

8 God at length in Si - on do ap - pear.

God at length in Si - on do ap - pear.

65 Vers 5

Sopran

Alt/Tenor/
Bass

For God, the Lord gives

For God, the Lord, both sun and shield, gives grace and

71

grace and glo - ry bright; No good shall glo - ry bright No good from them shall 76

be with - held Whose ways are just and right.

be with - held Whose ways are just and right.